SPRING 2025 Commencement

Greetings from the President

n behalf of the University of Florida, our faculty and our entire university community, I would like to extend my deepest congratulations to you, the Doctoral Graduates of 2025.

Today's ceremony celebrates your remarkable accomplishment in earning a doctoral degree from one of the nation's very best public research universities. I applaud you for your years dedicated to rigorous scholarship, thoughtful analysis and thorough presentation of your findings. I join you in thanking your faculty advisors, mentors and the family and friends who have supported you.

Today is a day for celebration, and for reflection on your future.

Whether you choose to pursue a career in academe, the private sector, government or the nonprofit world, I am confident that the research, analysis skills and resilience you honed as a doctoral student will serve you well. The complex demands and expectations for today's academic and professional leadership opportunities demand nothing less.

The university has benefited from your research, teaching, insights and discoveries, and we are grateful for your time here. We hope that you will look back on this period with fondness and appreciation, and that you will remain connected to UF as active members of our distinguished alumni.

Best wishes and Go Gators!

University of Florida President

Dr. W. Kent Fuchs

Dr. Kent Fuchs began serving as Interim President of the University of Florida in August 2024. A professor in the UF Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering, he was the university's 12th president from 2015 to 2023.

Dr. Fuchs led UF into the ranks of the nation's best public universities during his tenure, with the university's stature increasing more than any other research university in the nation. Among other advancements, UF topped $1 billion in annual research, surpassed $4.6 billon in philanthropy, and created and filled more than 600 new faculty positions, establishing national prominence in artificial intelligence and other areas of strategic importance.

Previous to the UF presidency, Dr. Fuchs was provost of Cornell University. He also served in academic leadership positions and as a faculty member of electrical and computer engineering at Cornell, Purdue and the University of Illinois.

He has been elected fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers and the Association for Computing Machinery and has received numerous awards for teaching and research.

He earned his doctorate in electrical and computer engineering from the University of Illinois, and a Master of Divinity from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. He also holds a Bachelor of Science in Engineering from Duke University.

Greetings from the Levin College of Law Dean

n behalf of the Levin College of Law community — especially our talented faculty and staff — I congratulate you on this momentous day! You've made it. You've done it. You've earned your place on this stage today.

You have also made the law school a better place for your having been here. In addition to your numerous achievements, you have been steadfastly committed to ensuring that Florida Law is a welcoming community — one that is rich in a variety of backgrounds, thoughts, and aspirations. Each of you, in your own way, has contributed to the cultural fabric of Florida Law. We will continue to nurture and build that culture for years to come.

Today your professional journey takes a new turn, as you embark on your legal careers. You also become part of the most powerful law alumni network in the world — the Gator Law Nation. We are proud to call you one of ours. We trust we have trained you well for the road ahead but don't forget that we will always be here as a resource and touch point for you. We're excited to watch you soar!

Merritt E. McAlister

Levin College of Law Dean

Merritt E. McAlister is the Interim Dean and Levin, Mabie & Levin Professor at Levin College of Law. She joined the UF Law faculty in 2018, and she was appointed interim dean in June 2023. Prior to her career in academia, Dean McAlister was a partner in the national appellate practice group of King & Spalding. While in private practice, she was elected to the American Law Institute, named a Georgia Super Lawyer, and recognized for her pro bono work on civil rights issues.

Dean McAlister clerked for Justice John Paul Stevens of the Supreme Court of the United States and Judge R. Lanier Anderson III of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. She received her bachelor's degree in English and Women and Gender Studies, magna cum laude, from Rice University and her law degree summa cum laude from the University of Georgia School of Law, where she served as Executive Articles Editor of the Georgia Law Review, and graduated first in her class.

Dean McAlister teaches and writes in the areas of federal courts, judicial decision-making, constitutional law, and court administration. Her scholarship focuses on issues of institutional design in the federal appellate courts. Dean McAlister's work has been published in the University of Pennsylvania Law Review, the Michigan Law Review, and the Northwestern University Law Review, among others. Her 2020 article, "Downright Indifference": Examining Unpublished Decisions in the Federal Courts of Appeals, received the annual prize from the AALS Federal Courts Section for the best paper on federal courts by an untenured professor.

Commencement Speaker

Joseph E. Fluet III (JD 99)

Joseph Fluet is a distinguished American entrepreneur, attorney, corporate leader, philanthropist, and military veteran, well known for his leadership and expertise in national security, aerospace, and legal sectors.

After earning his undergraduate degree from Lehigh University in 1989, Joe was commissioned into the US Army and attended Flight Training, graduating first in his class and joining the 101st Airborne division during the Gulf War. He went on to complete a total of 21 years of active and reserve service. Joe conducted missions all over the world including multiple deployments to Afghanistan, where he created the Afghan Special Mission Wing, the only special operations aviation unit in the Afghan Air Corps.

In 1997, Joe left active duty and earned his Juris Doctor, with High Honors, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. He served as a judicial clerk for Judge Paul Roney of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and worked as an attorney at Williams & Connolly LLP. In 2009, he founded Fluet & Huber (now Fluet), a law firm specializing in government contracts, international trade, and corporate law, focusing on clients in national security and intelligence sectors.

In 2010, Joe founded MAG Aerospace, a leading provider of aerial reconnaissance and intelligence services. Under his leadership MAG expanded globally, with thousands of employees operating over 300 aircraft on every populated continent.

Joe also holds executive roles and board positions in numerous public and private organizations, including The Clairvest Group, Top Aces, and Momentum Solutions. Joe is also active in philanthropic activities, serving on the Veteran Advisory Board of the Concussion Legacy Foundation and the Board of Directors for the International Spy Museum, in addition to managing the Fluet Foundation.

Recognized for his entrepreneurial achievements, Fluet received the EY Entrepreneur of the Year national award in 2017, among numerous other professional accolades. His multifaceted career reflects a commitment to leadership, innovation, and service across national security, legal, and business domains.
