

SPRING 2026

Commencement

Greetings from President Landry

Members of the Class of 2026: On behalf of the University of Florida, I am thrilled to recognize your hard work and accomplishments in reaching this day. My deepest congratulations!

Today is a day of celebration and anticipation for the next exciting phase of your lives. I join you in thanking your professors, mentors, family and friends who have supported you in your journey.

I hope that your success at one of the nation's very best public universities gives you confidence in pursuing your boldest ambitions. I also hope that your experiences here—whether forming friendships, overcoming challenges or discovering new paths—have helped you develop humility and resolve, confidence and compassion. May you embrace what comes next with a generous spirit, a feeling of openness, and a commitment to utilize your individual talents to the greatest good.

You have been important to this university. Your contributions to your classes and majors will benefit future generations of students. Thank you for being a vital part of our community.

I hope that you will look back on this period with fondness and appreciation, and that you will remain connected to UF as distinguished alumni.

Again, congratulations and Go Gators.

Donald Landry

Dr. Donald Landry

Donald Landry has served as the interim president of the University of Florida since September 1, 2025. Prior to his appointment, he was the founding director of the Burch-Lodge Center for Human Longevity at Columbia as well as Chair Emeritus of the Department of Medicine at Columbia University and past Physician-in-Chief at New York-Presbyterian Hospital/Columbia University Medical Center, leading the Department and the Medical Service from 2007–2023. He is also past founding director of the Division of Experimental Therapeutics.

Dr. Landry completed his PhD in Organic Chemistry with Nobel laureate R.B. Woodward at Harvard University in 1979 and then obtained the MD degree from Columbia University in 1983. After completing his Residency in Internal Medicine at the Massachusetts General Hospital/Harvard Medical School, he returned to Columbia for training as an NIH Physician-Scientist, 1985–90, and remained as an active member of the Columbia faculty until his appointment to the UF presidency.

Greetings from Dean McAlister

On behalf of the Levin College of Law community — especially our talented faculty and staff — I congratulate you on this momentous day! You’ve made it. You’ve done it. You’ve earned your place on this stage today.

You have also made the law school a better place for your having been here. In addition to your numerous achievements, you have been steadfastly committed to ensuring that Florida Law is a welcoming community — one that is rich in a variety of backgrounds, viewpoints, and aspirations. Each of you, in your own way, has contributed to the cultural fabric of Florida Law. We will continue to nurture and build that culture for years to come.

Today your professional journey takes a new turn, as you embark on your legal careers. You also become part of the most powerful law alumni network in the world — the Gator Law Nation. We are proud to call you one of ours. We trust we have trained you well for the road ahead but don’t forget that we will always be here as a resource and touch point for you. We’re excited to watch you soar!

Merritt E. McAlister

Dean Merritt E. McAlister

Merritt E. McAlister is the Interim Dean and Levin, Mabie & Levin Professor at Levin College of Law. She joined the UF Law faculty in 2018, and she was appointed interim dean in June 2023. Prior to her career in academia, Dean McAlister was a partner in the national appellate practice group of King & Spalding. While in private practice, she was elected to the American Law Institute, named a Georgia Super Lawyer, and recognized for her pro bono work on civil rights issues.

Dean McAlister clerked for Justice John Paul Stevens of the Supreme Court of the United States and Judge R. Lanier Anderson III of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. She received her bachelor’s degree in English and Women and Gender Studies, magna cum laude, from Rice University and her law degree summa cum laude from the University of Georgia School of Law, where she served as Executive Articles Editor of the Georgia Law Review, and graduated first in her class.

Dean McAlister teaches and writes in the areas of federal courts, judicial decision-making, constitutional law, and court administration. Her scholarship focuses on issues of institutional design in the federal appellate courts. Dean McAlister’s work has been published in the University of Pennsylvania Law Review, the Michigan Law Review, and the Northwestern University Law Review, among others. Her 2020 article, “Downright Indifference”: Examining Unpublished Decisions in the Federal Courts of Appeals, received the annual prize from the AALS Federal Courts Section for the best paper on federal courts by an untenured professor.

Keynote Address

Judge Robert J. Luck (JD 04)

Judge Robert J. Luck was nominated on October 15, 2019, and confirmed by the Senate on November 19, 2019, to serve as a Judge on the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. Before his confirmation to the federal appellate court, Judge Luck presided over hundreds of criminal, civil, and family law appeals as a Justice on the Florida Supreme Court, and as a Judge on Florida's Third District Court of Appeal.

Earlier, Judge Luck served on the Eleventh Judicial Circuit Court of Florida. He presided in the Criminal, Civil, and Appellate Divisions. Judge Luck, in his years as a trial court judge, tried seventy jury trials, and heard dozens of appeals from the county court and municipal agencies. Judge Luck was appointed to the circuit court in 2013 and was elected by the voters of Miami-Dade County to retain his seat in 2016.

Prior to his service on the bench, Judge Luck was an Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of Florida. In his years as a federal prosecutor, he was assigned to the Appeals, Major Crimes, and Economic Crimes Sections of the U.S. Attorney's Office. Judge Luck tried nineteen jury trials before the federal district court and argued three appeals to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. In his final year in the Office, he was a Deputy Chief in the Major Crimes Section.

Earlier in his career, Judge Luck was a legislative correspondent for two United States Senators, a law clerk and staff attorney to Circuit Judge Ed Carnes on the Eleventh Circuit, and a part of the Greenberg Traurig firm's appellate section. Judge Luck received his Juris Doctor from the University of Florida Levin College of Law magna cum laude and was asked to join the Order of the Coif. Judge Luck also served as Editor-in-Chief of the Florida Law Review. Judge Luck received his Bachelor of Arts in Economics from the University of Florida with highest honors.

Although a life-long South Floridian, Judge Luck and his family currently live in Tallahassee.

Doctor of Juridical Science in Taxation

The S.J.D degree is an advanced degree for students who have already attained a Juris Doctor (JD) degree, or in the case of international students, attained an equivalent law degree from a university outside the United States. The S.J.D degree is awarded to students who complete Levin College of Law requirements, which include writing a monograph of publishable quality. Students are recommended for the degree by the faculty of the Levin College of Law.

Eric Monteiro de Medeiros

Juris Doctor

The Juris Doctor degree is awarded to students who have earned at least a baccalaureate degree, who have completed a three-year course study at the Levin College of Law, and who are recommended by its faculty. The law school recognizes scholastic achievement by awarding the degree of Juris Doctor summa cum laude, magna cum laude, and cum laude based on the following: the top 2% of each graduating class will be awarded the JD degree summa cum laude, the next 8.5% of the class will be awarded the degree magna cum laude, and the next 37.5% of the class will be awarded the degree cum laude. Honors designations are as of Fall 2025.
